

Website Accessibility Statement

The Guild of Ethics Culture & Leadership Pty Ltd is committed to ensuring that our website is accessible to all users, including those with disabilities. In accordance with the Equality act 2010 and Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG).

we are committed to making reasonable adjustments to our website to ensure that disabled users are not at a disadvantage.

Reasonable Adjustments: We will make reasonable adjustments to our website as necessary to ensure that it is accessible to all users. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Providing alternative formats: We will provide alternative formats of our content, such as audio or braille, upon request.
- Assistive technology compatibility: We will ensure that our website is compatible with assistive technologies, such as screen readers and speech-to-text software.
- Clear and consistent navigation: We will use clear and consistent navigation to make our website easy to use for all users.
- Accessible forms: We will ensure that our forms are accessible to users with disabilities.

- Accessible multimedia: We will provide captions or transcripts for all multimedia content.

Feedback and Reporting: If you encounter any accessibility barriers on our website, please contact us at tonybeaven1865g@mail.com

We will make every effort to address the issue promptly.

Ongoing Commitment: We are continually working to improve the accessibility of our website. We welcome feedback and suggestions to help us achieve our goal of providing an inclusive online experience.